Tarona for seasickness or dyspepsia. Hobron Drug Company.

Regular monthly meeting of Pioneer Building and Loan Association to-night.

We want your trade, hence try to make our prices and goods a standing inducement. Sturdevant's.

It took seven policemen, Saturday night, to take one drunken sailor to the police station from Hotel street.

Regular monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Board meeting half an hour earlier.

P. W. Kahokuoluna, superintendent of the North Makawao Sunday Schools, has a card of thanks in this paper.

Among the arrivals from Kauai ports on the W. G. Hall Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, H. P. Baldwin and R. Catton.

Reserved seats for the second and last performance, on Tuesday night, of Mr. Frank Lincoln, now on sale at Wall, Nichols Company.

Commissioner Fitzgerald and Mr. Greene spent Saturday looking over Ewa plantation. They returned to Honolulu Sunday morning.

Mrs. Amy Kala gave a luncheon to a number of her friends on Saturday, the occasion being the opening of her new home on Dowsett lane.

William Goetz, of the Star newspaper force, was tendered a farewell dinner last night by his friends. He will leave for the Coast on Wednesday.

The Executive Committee of the Queen Victoria Diamond Jubilee celebration will meet at the hotel tonight at 7:30 o'clock to receive reports, etc.

Sam Kauae was found in a drunken state near the Executive building yard Sunday afternoon. His face was badly bruised, as if some one had beaten him.

An immense stock of new goods has just been opened by N. S. Sachs. All the latest novelties. Don't fail to see the new art tickings and new style belts.

Until further notice, the sessions of the Board of Registration will be from 8 a. m. to 12 m. and 5 to 7 p. m., daily, at the old Legislative hall, in the Judiciary building.

A Masonic mark, suspended from a gold bar, was lost yesterday by a wheelman coming from Waikiki to town. A reward will be paid for its return to this office.

George Woods, the well-known baseball player, has been removed to Lunalilo Home. He is in a precarious condition, and no hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Among the passengers who arrived from Maui ports on the Claudine Sunday were: Miss Berg, Mrs. H. C. Oviden, Dr. McGettigan, E. A. Mott-Smith, C. A. Spreckels and L. L. McCandless.

On Saturday, May 8th, James F. Morgan will sell, by order of the Underwriters, the cargo of lumber per Hawaiian bark Rosalie, at the wharf, opposite the Custom House. Inventory of cargo to be seen at salesrooms.

In the Police Court yesterday Ah Hook pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawful possession of the fa tickets, and was fined $25 and costs. The conspiracy case of Lee You, Lee Chung Bank and Lee Sung was further remanded until May 6th.

A runaway of a Chinaman's team of horses, attached to a dray, created no end of excitement on Maunakea street between 12 and 1 o'clock Saturday. The Chinaman had been careless, and the horses took advantage of this to make a break for liberty.

Health before wealth is an old saying, which is as true today as it was yesterday. Purifine insures health; the wealth comes afterwards. Purifine is put up in various size bottles, and is within the reach of all. Hollister Drug Company, sole agents.

In an interesting game of baseball, on the old ball grounds, between teams from Iolani College and Mills Institute, the former came off victorious with a score of 17 to 6. This makes it a case of a game apiece and another deciding contest will come off very shortly.

The lichee nut tree on the Afong premises, corner of Nuuanu avenue and School street, is now laden with fruit, and has been for many days a source of much speculation on the part of pedestrians passing that way. This lichee nut tree is the only one in Honolulu old enough to bear fruit.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a reception to the Rev. and Mrs. Osborne, in St. Andrew's Cathedral Sunday School room. After the reception there will be music and refreshments. All worshippers of St. Andrew's and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne are cordially invited to attend.

JAPANESE LEGATION.

Reception and Banquet Tendered by H. I. J. M. Minister Resident.

Some time ago the leading Japanese residents of Honolulu tendered a banquet to Mr. H. Shimamura, on the occasion of his elevation to the post of Minister Resident. In reciprocating this kindness, Mr. Shimamura invited these gentlemen to dine with him at the Legation Saturday night. Covers were laid for 40. Speeches were made in Japanese by Mr. Watanabe and Dr. Uchida, and one in English by Mr. Fukuda, a Japanese graduate of the Columbia Law School.

There was not political significance

In the gathering, and Hawaiian affairs were not touched upon by the speakers. The Hawaiian Government Band was in attendance. Following is a copy of the menu at the dinner:
